Whose woods these are

I think I know.

His house is in the
village though;

He will not see me
stopping here.

To watch fill up with
snow.

My little little horse
must think it queer

To stop without a

Farmhouse near

Between the woods and
frozen lake

The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness
bells a shake.

To ask if there is
some mistake.

The only other sound's
the sweep.

Of easy wind and
downy flake.

The woods are lovely,
dark and deep.

But I have promises
to keep,

And miles to go before
I sleep,

And ~~my~~ miles to go
before I sleep.

- Robert Frost

Queer : (Cold-Fashioned)
strange.

Harness : set of leade
to leather bands used
to control a horse.

Downy : soft.

Flake : snowflake.

* In this poet tells
about the beauty
of the nature ~~as~~ which is deserted but beautiful.

"Feeling towards beggars"

ASSIGNMENT

7:00 p.m.

Dear Diary,

2 weeks ago, I saw some beggars near the a temple in our city. I felt dejected and downhearted to see the sight. The clothes of the beggars was torned and ^{they} were calling people to give ^{them} money to them. Many people were ignoring the beggars and some people barely give them £10 or less. It is a sorrowful situation in our modern era. Many people are employed ~~and~~ but no one cares about the beggars, everyone is busy in their own work!

Beggars don't ^{feel} possess any hope and miserable as they don't have any option to do except begging for money. Humans should we have to be kind to others as kindness is one of the important qualities for the humans. So, they should ~~should~~ show humanity to others.

o I like I give the beggars money I feel happy to help them. Not only that but also I give them say them ~~not~~ motivational words so that they can be encouraged and survive their lives happily and hopefully.

6) Develop a story on the topic
'The monkey and the crocodile'.

Once THE MONKEY & THE CROCODILE
a time, there was
an elephant and a monkey.
They were two best friends.
Monkey gave crocodile
sweet berries from the
tree and crocodile
eats the berries happily
and chatter with the monkey for a long time.

One day, crocodile wife
came to know about it
she asked the crocodile
to bring his heart
saying, "It would be delicious
like the berries." She ate
the the sweet berries.

The crocodile was foolish. He went to the monkey inviting for
the lunch at his home.

On the way, he said
that his wife wanted
to eat his heart. "Hmm.
You should said it before,
I forgot to bring

my heart and I left it on the tree." The crocodile went again ~~to~~ near the tree.

~~Mon~~ The monkey suddenly ~~for~~ went to the tree and said that ~~the~~ heart is always in our chest. ~~It~~ Its impossible to keep heart out of our body. Ha...ha...ha... ~~he~~ he went to the forest laughingly. The ~~crocodile~~ crocodile had to return his home without the monkey.

Write the narrator sketch of the narrator from the story 'A Helping Hand'.

The narrator was a friendly person. She gives advice to the girl with a ~~prost~~ prosthetic hand to play with others and encourages her to not always be depressed. The narrator writes all her feelings in her diary and never shares it with the girl with a prosthetic hand. The narrator has a quality of compassion and helps the girl. ~~so~~ The narrator faced various problems for the girl but she never tells the girl as it may hurt her. Thus, the narrator is a supportive friend.
