

HOMEWORK English

Sec-B
Class-VI

Surya Narayan Mohanty
School NO - 4268

A. Let us find the answers from the poem.

(Q1) What do the Merchants sell?

Answer - The Merchants sell all kinds of expensive clothing and artefacts: turbans and tunics of vibrant mirrors with panels of amber and daggers with handles of jade.

(Q2) What are the vendors weighing? why are they weighing them?

Answer - The vendors are weighing saffron, lentil and rice. They are weighing them because these are sold by weight.

(Q3) Who are pedlars? What are they selling?

Answer - Pedlars are people who go from place to place selling things. In the poem they are selling chessmen and dice.

(Q4) What fruits are the fruitmen selling?

Answer- The fruitmen are selling, lentil flowers, pomegranates and plums.

(Q5) Who are the flower-girls weaving the garlands for?

Answer- The flower-girls are weaving the garland for and also for the dead.

B. let us between the lines.

(1) Ans- The phrase 'richly display' describes the warres themselves. The warres look grand and exotic and thus the poet says that they are displayed.

(2) Ans- In the Olden days, region were used as messengers. The bells tied to their feet scared other animals away and also alerted the message. The goldsmiths are marking gold bells royal pigeons.

(3) Ans- The bazaars of Hyderabad as described in the poem are very different from the present people from all sections be it the rich merchants and goldsmiths or the fruit flower girls.

Vocabulary Junction: crossword Puzzle

1. DHOL
2. FLUTE
3. EGGA
4. TANPUVA
5. SANTOUR
6. TABLA
7. SARANGI
8. SITAR