

(1) How environment is getting polluted?

Ans) The growing population leads to different problem like people started building houses by cutting trees, increasing demands for goods resulted in rapid industrialisation. This leads to environmental pollution.

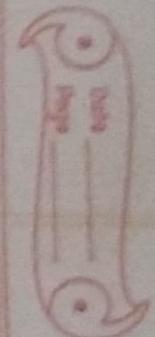

(2) How is environment pollution affecting us?

Ans) Environmental pollution is affecting us in different ways like :- water pollution, air pollution leading to health problem. Because of pollution our atmosphere is also changing.

(3) How to reduce environment pollution?

Ans) We can reduce environmental pollution by planting more and more trees.

- Industrial waste shouldn't be dumped in rivers.

• Lesser use of insecticides and pesticides.

③ What is your suggestion to reduce environment pollution?

b) To reduce environmental pollution, first of all we have to make aware the people about the result of pollution. We should support the environmentalist. Local people should keep their surroundings clean. We should plant more and more trees.

⑤ Do environment pollution affects our daily life? How?

b) Yes environment pollution affects our daily life. More and more use of vehicles leading to air pollution because of that people are suffering from disease like asthma; we are not getting fresh air to breathe. Dwindling of industry sector leading to water pollution. Global warming is also another cause of pollution due to which our climate is changing.