

① Early on winter morning we see drop of water on parked cars and plants why?

answerr Early on winter morning we see drop of water on parked cars and plants this is because of condensation. This is because to the cold climate, the water vapour present in the atmosphere condenses to form dew drops.