

How mother teresa helped the poor people?

Mother Teresa helped the poor people and ill people when most others avoided them. She picked them out of the gutter and took them where they could be loved. She created rehabilitation homes and rescued homeless people dying in the streets and gave them shelter and love during their death.