

H.W = 5-01-2021

1. Name the trans-Himalayan ranges lying in India.

Ans: The trans-Himalayan ranges lying in India are Karakoram range, the Ladakh range and the Zaskar range.

2. What is a 'pass' in the mountains?

Ans: A mountain pass is a route for travelling through mountains. It is a navigable route through a mountain range.

3. The word Himalaya means 'the abode of snow' in sanskrit.

4. Name the three parallel ranges of Himalaya.
Ans: The three parallel ranges of Himalaya are Himadri, Himachal and shivalik.