

On quitting

Q. How do we find the answers from the poem.

1. When is it tough to obey rigid orders?

A. When you have to quit things that you like. It is tough to obey rigid orders.

2. Why should we not boast about courage to others?

A. Boastfulness is the driver of crisis and we must not take others as inferior as all have sacrificed in their own ways.

3. When is it easy to retain a thing?

A. When you are lonely you must retain your courage as being lonely requires patience and tenacity, and in hard times we can face challenges.

4. What is the best way to test if you have grit?

A. The best way to test if you have grit is to quit a thing that you like.

5 What is the toughest kind of game?

Ans) The toughest kind of game is to quit a day that you like.

— x —→