CHAPTER - 3 THE LITTLE GIRL

Thinking about the text

II Answer the following questions.

Q1. Why was Kezia afraid of ~~the~~ her father?

Ans:- Kezia was afraid of her father because he was very strict and always used to give commands to everybody in the house. Kezia was a little sensitive girl. But her father was very aggressive. He always spoke loudly. He never showed affection to her. He never played with her. He had big hands and heavy face, especially his mouth when ~~he~~ he yawned was big and she was terrified with the manner in which he stared at her over his spectacles.

Q2. Who were the people in Kezia's family?

Ans:- Kezia's family consisted of her Father, Mother, Grandmother, herself and cook.

Q3. What was ~~her~~ Kezia's father's routine (i) before going to his office?

(ii) after coming back from his office?

(iii) on Sundays?

Ans:- (i) Before going to his office, Kezia's father usually went into her room to give her a casual kiss and asked her to say goodbye.

X (ii) After coming back from his office, Kezia's father usually went into her room

(iii) After coming back from his office, he ordered for tea to be brought into the drawing room. He also asked his mother to ~~him~~ bring him the newspaper and his slippers.

Q11) On Sunday, Kezia's father would stretch out on the sofa. He would cover his face with his handkerchief, put his feet on one of the best cushions and sleep soundly.

Q12. In what ways did Kezia's grandmother encourage her to get to know her father better?

Ans: Kezia's grandmother encouraged her to get to know her father better by sending her to the drawing room to talk to her parents on ~~sun~~ Sundays. She also suggested Kezia to make a pin-cushion out of a beautiful piece of yellow silk as a gift for her father's birthday.

Q13. Kezia's efforts to please her father resulted in displeasing him very much. How did this happen?

Ans: Kezia's efforts to please her father resulted in displeasing him.

On every Sunday, her grandmother sent her down to the drawing room to have a nice talk with father and mother. But her presence always irritated her father. He used to call her 'little brown owl'.

One day her grandmother told her to make a pin-cushion as a gift for her father's birthday. After stitching three sides of the cushion with double cotton with great care and effort, she was stuck ^{as} to what to fill the cushion with. Since her grandmother was busy in the garden, she searched her mother's bedroom for scraps. Finally, she discovered sheets of paper on the bed table. She gathered them, tore them up and filled the cushion with it.

Unfortunately, her efforts to please her father not only went in vain but also had an unanticipated consequence. This was because the sheets she had torn were her father's speech for the Port Authority. Her father scolded her for touching things that did not belong to her and punished her by hitting her palm with a ruler.

Q2. Kezia decides that there are "different kinds of fathers". What kind of father was Mr. Macdonald, and how was he different from Kezia's father?

ANS: Kezia compared her father with Mr. Macdonald, her ~~ne~~ next door neighbour. He was a loving, gentle and forgiving father. He was always smiling and playing with his children. He treated his children in a friendly manner. He was ~~to~~ just opposite to Kezia's father. Unlike Kezia's father he never punished his children. He played with them whenever he was free.

~~He~~ On the other hand Kezia's father was very harsh. He didn't talk to her affectionately but rather he used to speak to her sternly. So she avoided him. She did not want to be in front of him because she was afraid of him. Moreover, her father never spent time with her. She wished if her father were like Mr. Macdonald.

Q3 How does ~~the~~ Kezia begin to see her father as a human being who needs her sympathy?

Ans:- One day when her father ~~was~~ ^{gets} hospitalised, she ~~was~~ ^{is} left with her father ^{and the cook Alice} at home. At night, after she is put to bed by the cook, she has a nightmare. She calls for her grandmother but to her surprise, she finds her father standing near her bed. He takes her in his arms and makes her sleep next to him. Half asleep, she creeps close to him, ~~she~~ snuggles her head under his arm, and holds tightly to his shirt. Her father asks her to rub her feet against his legs for warmth.

Her father goes off to sleep before her. This makes her understand that he has to work hard every day and this leaves him too tired to be like Mr. Macdonald. She expresses her altered feelings for her father by telling him that he has a 'big heart'.
