CHAPTER - 4

IN THE KINGDOM OF FOOLS

Q1. What are the two strange things the guru and his disciple find in the Kingdom of Fools?

Ans:- The two strange things the guru and his disciple observe in the Kingdom of Fools are:-

1. Everyone sleeps during the day and carry out their work at night.

2. The cost ^{to} of purchase of all anything from the market was the same, one dudu.

Q2. Why does the disciple decide to stay in the Kingdom of Fools? Is it a good idea?

Ans:- The disciple was a foodaholic and greedy person. He was very delighted that everything cost a single dudu and everything was be very cheap. All that he wanted was good and very cheap food.

According to the Guru, it was not a good idea to stay there as they were all fools and so he felt that this situation would not last long and was not sure about what they would do in the future.

Q3. Name all the people who are tried in the king's court, and give the reasons for their trial.

Ans- The following people were tried in the king's court:

1. The merchant whose house was burgled: The merchant was tried because his house's wall was weak which and it fell on the burglar and killed him.
2. The bricklayer who built the wall: The bricklayer was tried because he built the weak wall which collapsed & killing the burglar.

3. The dancing girl: The dancing girl was tried because she distracted the bricklayer with her jingling anklets by walking up and down the road where the bricklayer was building the wall.

4. The goldsmith: The goldsmith was tried because he didn't complete the order of the dancing girl, which made her ^{go to the} ~~walk~~ up and down the street a goldsmith a dozen times.

5. The Merchant whose house was burgled (second time): The merchant was again tried because his old father, who was now dead had persuaded the goldsmith to finish his order first, thereby delaying the dancing girl's order. As his father was dead, the merchant had to be executed in his place.

16. The disciple: The disciple was tried because he was fat ~~short~~ and the merchant was too

6. The disciple: The disciple was tried because the merchant was too thin to be executed by the newly made stake and a fat man was required to fit the stake. The disciple was very fat, hence he was caught.
