

Subject _____

School _____

Date _____

Page _____

This is a story of letters that tells a touching story about friendship and dealing with disabilities because she has only one hand. Here the writer has helped the girl and shown the school. Write writes it with respect for the girl as she has done for him for one hand.