

History

daily Homework

- 1.) Collective identity is the shared sense of belonging to the group.
- 2.) Collective identity are important for our country to create peace because its maintain self-respect, unity, sense of belonging, and social responsibility for people and group of organisation.
- 3.) India is a land of diversity because the "unity of diversity" because India represent endless behaviour, variety of physical features and cultural patterns. it is a land of many languages it is only in india people professes all the major religion of the world.