

Page _____

Write a paragraph on 'The harmful effects of watching television'

Now a days television is the largest media of communication. It has both good and bad effects on society. Children who are addicted to television they spoil their studies because instead of watching educational programme. Now a days the eye problem of kids is very common as they continuously watch television. The advertisements telecasted on the television attract bad effects on their day to day life.