

Write a paragraph on Indian village in about 100 words.

India is our motherland. It is a developing country as it is the land of villages. 70% of people of India live in villages. The main occupation of Indian villagers is agriculture. So in the villages we find many agricultural lands.

The farmers grow the harvest by giving their hardwork. They are not highly educated they ~~use~~ ~~machines~~ use cattle in farming instead of machines. The lifestyle of Indian villagers is very simple. The villagers have a natural beauty. They look beautiful with ponds, trees, rivers etc. Indian villages look peaceful with muddy thatched houses. Villages are bread basket of our country.
