

1. Underline the transitive and intransitive verbs in the following sentences. Write TV for transitive and IV for intransitive verbs.

(a) My sister is an aspiring economist.

TV

(b) The puppy lost its way in the storm.

IV

(c) My mother sent me a letter from the UAE.

TV

(d) The Sabari Express arrived an hour late today.

IV

(e) The children are reading their favourite short stories.

TV

(f) The president of our club seemed unhappy about the meeting today.

IV

(g) Rama submitted her assignment before everyone else in the class.

TV

(h) We discussed several tourist destinations for our upcoming vacation.

TV

2. Underline the verbs in the following sentences and identify them as intransitive (IVP) or transitive (TVP) verbs of incomplete predication.

(a) Studying all night left me exhausted.

IVP

(b) The jury found them guilty of the crime.

TVP

(c) Aslam knocked softly on the classroom door.

TVP

(d) My grandfather resembles Mahatma Gandhi.

TVP

(e) Kamakshi was considered overqualified for the post.

IVP

(f) There were at least five thousand people in the stadium.

IVP

(g) Nandini's plants grew really fast during the rainy season.

IVP

(h) The news of Kaaynat's accident made us terribly anxious.

TVP