RAM BHAROSA

Ram Bharosa is the owner of a tea shop. He is very greedy. Because of his greediness he wanted to stole Binya's umbrella because everyone was admiring the umbrella. After so many tries Ram Bharosa gave up all hope of ever possessing Binya's Umbrella. Because of his greediness he had suffered from tortures of greed and the despair of loneliness. People had stopped coming to his shop and turned against him. The children taunted him, twisted his name around. From 'Ram the Trustworthy' he became 'Trusty Umbrella Thief'. He lost his own appetite and ate and drank very little.
