Q. The peace treaty at Versailles with the Allies was a harsh and humiliating peace! Justify.

Ans) During the First World War, though in Allies and Axis

Power so many countries were involved but the great loss came to only Germany. Due to this war

- Germany lost its overseas colonies, a tenth of its population, 13 percent of its territories, 75 percent of its iron and 36 percent of its coal to France, Poland, Denmark and Lithuania.
- The Allied Powers demilitarised Germany to weaken its power.
- The war Guilt Clause held Germany responsible for the war and damages the Allied countries suffered.
- Germany was forced to pay compensation amounting to £ 6 billion.
- The Allied armies also occupied the resource-rich Rhineland for much of the 1920s.

Due to this reason, the peace treaty at Versailles with the Allies was a harsh and humiliating peace.
