Q) What does the constitution say with regard to equality?
Say why do you think that it is important for all people to be equal?

ans. → Constitution says that no one can be discriminated on the basis of gender, caste, religion, race or economic status.

→ It is important that all people to be equal if ~~if~~ there will be no equality then we have discrimination between us on the basis of gender, caste, race, economic status etc.

3. Some times people make prejudice comment in your presence. We are often not in a position to do anything about this because it is difficult to say something ~~right~~ right then and there. Write what you would do in these situation.

a) A friend begins to tease a classmate because he is poor.

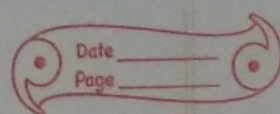

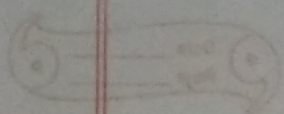

ans. As this is a discrimination made by my friend, I will tell him or her to don't discriminate on the basis of the economic status of that child.

b) You are watching TV with your family and one of them make a prejudicial comment about a particular religious community.

ans. As the person ~~make~~ made a prejudicial comment about a religious community while watching TV, I will ~~will~~ explain him or her to not to discriminate on the basis of religion and its culture.

c) Children in your class refuse to share their food with a particular person because they think she is dirty.

ans. If I will face this situation first I will make my friends understood that no one is dirty on culture, religion, gender, caste, race or economic status. Everyone is same ~~infront~~ in front the law. So we should ~~wouldn't~~ behave anyone like that.

d) Someone tells you a joke that makes fun of a community because of their accent.

ans I will request that person to not to make fun of a community on the basis of their accent language and I will explain him/her to not make fun of a community due to their accent and I will tell that person that beauty doesn't lie on the language it lies on the heart.

e) Some boys make remarks about girls not being able to play games as well as them.

ans- I will surely make the boys understand that we shouldn't do partiality between the gender because girls can do many things that boys cannot.
