

times.

HW Q) How do coins help to study history?
29.9.21

ans- Coins help to study history in the following ways:

→ It was issued to buy goods and services.

→ It includes some battle scene and faces of the queen or king.

→ It also shows some scenes from the life of the ruler engraved on them.

→ It shows the name of the king and the year in which the coins were issued.

Q2) Mention any three reasons of studying history?

ans- The study of history makes people more tolerant and broad minded.

→ History teaches us to carefully examine and question facts before accepting it as the truth.

→ The study of history gives us a sense of identity that who we are and who our ancestors are.

Q3) What are the three written sources of ancient Indian history? Describe any one of them.

ans- Manuscripts are the documents that have been written by hand.

The three types of literature are :-

- i. Religious literature.
- ii. Secular literature
- iii. Travellers' account

Secular literature

Secular literature are the writing on subject other than the religion, ~~politic~~ like politics and law and medicines. Biographies like Harshacharita by Banabhatta and Arthashastra by Kautilya which is a treatise on government, economic policy and military strategy was written in 4th century CE.

PDF Created Using

Camera Scanner

Easily Scan documents & Generate PDF

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=photo.pdf maker>