

Write three points on why people in the desert use less water in compare to other part of India?

Ans ① They drink less water because they didn't get sufficient water to drink.

② There is less water for preparing food.

③ That's why all people live where water is available.