

H.W
12/01/22

Homework

1 Early on winter mornings we see drops of water on parked cars and plants. Why?

Ans Early on winter mornings we see drops of water on parked car and plants this is because of condensation during the night when the hot air comes into ~~contact~~ contact with some cold surface, water vapour present in it condenses on the cold surface in the form of droplets. ~~These~~ These tiny drops of water are called dew drops.