→ Once upon a time, there was a bear family living in a forest. One morning, Mama bear prepared porridge for breakfast. As it was hot, Papa bear decided to take Mama bear & baby bear for a walk in the forest. Near the forest, there lived a beautiful girl named Goldilocks. As she had beautiful hair, she was called so. One morning, she was walking in the forest & lost her way. She saw a cottage & knocked on the door. But nobody was there, so she went inside. The cottage belonged to three bears. Goldilocks was very hungry. She saw three bowls of porridge on the dining table. First, she tried a spoonful from Papa bear's big bowl & said: "This is too hot!" Next, she tried from Mama bear's medium bowl & said: "This porridge is also too cold!" Finally, she tried from baby bear's small bowl & said: "This porridge is just right!" And she ate the whole bowl.

After eating, she saw three chairs in that room. She sat on Papa & mama bears chair, it was too big. She sat on baby bears chair & said that it was too big. ~~She~~ Goldilocks felt very tired & so she went upstairs, to the bedroom. She saw three beds in the bedroom. She lied on the first bed & felt that the bed was too hard. The second bed was too soft. But the third bed ~~was~~ felt just right & slept in it. Soon the three bears came home. "What's this? Someone has been having my porridge too?" said the mama bear. "Someone has finished all my porridge!" cried baby bear. Papa & mama bear said that someone was sitting in their chair too. "Someone has broken my chair!" cried the baby bear. They rushed to the bedroom. Both Papa & mama bear said that there was someone who slept in their bed too. "Oh! mama Papa someone is sleeping in my bed!" said the
