

H.W
11/7/21

HOME ASSIGNMENT

1. Define the term Fundamental rights.
Mention it.

Ans

Rights which are guaranteed by the constitution and have legal sanction and also given to all citizens is called fundamental rights.

The fundamental rights are:

- (i) Right to equality
- (ii) Right to freedom
- (iii) Right against exploitation
- (iv) Right to freedom of religion
- (v) Cultural and educational rights
- (vi) Right to constitution remedies

2. India is a secular country! What does it mean?

Ans. — India is a secular country. It means every citizen has the freedom to profess, practice and propagate the religion of his liking and no discrimination on the basis of religion.

3. What is RTE Act of 2010?

Ans. — * The right of children to free and compulsory Education (RTE) Act came into effect in 2010.

* By this act, all children between the ages of 6 and 14 have the right to free and compulsory elementary education in a neighbourhood school.