90. Write an article on the topic.
'Discipline is the key to success'.

For success being disciplined is a must. Discipline inculcates strong habits that are useful in every situation we face. Becoming a disciplined person starts from home where parents can play a critical role. Discipline means obedience to rules which are framed for the good of the individual and society. For anything there is a process and some rules that we have to follow, not for us but for the good of the society in which we live. A disciplined man lives an orderly life and is a successful man. If there are no rules, no plan or no order in life then there will be confusion.

In focus one can be disciplined in one's home and one can learn from family about what should be attitude towards the society. Discipline is necessary in every walk of life. The general good of the society depends on it. Without discipline all the constructive activities in the society would come to an end.

Family is like the first institution where one can learn discipline in life. In a family someone acts as a head then others should respect ~~on~~ them. This will help in the smooth running of the family. The progress of the country is only possible when there is law and order in the country, and as a responsible citizen everyone should follow it.
