

3. Who decided to form National Council of Education and why?

Ans. Satish Chandra Mukherjee, Aurobindo Ghosh and Rabindranath Tagore met in 1905 and decided to form a National Council of Education to start the system of education on a national scale. They realised that the education policy of the British was not reaching the grass roots.

4. Who laid the foundation of the Baroda College of Science?

Ans. Maharaja Sayajirao III in 1880.