

① Who founded Indian National Congress?

Ans- Allan Octavian Hume founded Indian National Congress in 1885.

② Name some of the prominent leaders of congress?

Ans- Dadabhai Nauroji, Pherozeshah Mehta, S Subramania Iyer, Rahmatullah, W.C. Banerjee

③ What was the ^{important} aim of the Congress at the beginning? (H/W)

④ Who was known as the Grand old man of India and why?

Ans- Dadabhai Nauroji was known as the Grand old man of India because.

* He was elected thrice for the President of the Congress - 1886, 1893 and 1906

* His long association with India's freedom struggle

5) Who were Moderates?

Ans- Most of the Congress members were Indian and had faith in British. They only wanted gradual reforms. They aimed at better and friendly association with the British. They came to be called moderates.

The moderates wanted the British to train Indians in the art of self government.

6) Who said 'Swaraj is my birthright and I shall have it'?

Ans- Bal Gangadhar Tilak

Date _____
Page _____

Q3) What are the important aim of the congress at the beginning?

Ans- The important aim of the congress at the beginning are :-

- * To seek the cooperation of all Indians
- * To eradicate prejudices of race, religion, caste, etc.
- * To discuss the major problems of India and come out with suggestion to solve them.
- * To request the British to involve Indians while taking administrative decisions concerning India.